LOCAL BOY INJURED IN NAVY YARD EXPLOSION

ELECTRICIAN ALSO HURT WHEN WIRELESS CONTROLLED TORPEDO BURSTS PREMATURELY AT TEST

That Leonard Gerlach, youthful inventor of Richmond and son of Superintendent Gerlach of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company, was painfully injured last Sunday at Mare Island, when the wireless torpedo he was testing before officials of the United States navy, prematurely exploded, and that a naval electrician suffered a shattered hip in the same explosion was learned last night.

Young Gerlach refused to say anything about the accident yesterday.

Gerlach has been working on a wireless controlled torpedo for over a year. His first model was ruined by a premature explosion. He is U. S. radio inspector for the district.

His second model, it is said, was to be given a trial Sunday afternoon before navy officials at Mare Island.

The torpedo was sent into Napa Creek, under the control of a special wireless tower. While out in the stream and being watched anxiously by those on the shore, the steering gear began to buck.

There were a number of ships not far from shore and to send the torpedo through any more maneuvers with a steering gear that had become defective was dangerous.

It was turned around and headed for shore. Gerlach and the naval electrician ran to meet it. It is said that some one made a mistake at the controlling tower. Just as young Gerlach and the navy man got to the point where the torpedo was about to reach the beach, it exploded.

Both Gerlach and the electrician were knocked to the ground. The electrician was unconscious when picked up. A piece of flying steel shattered his hip, it is said.

A small piece of steel entered Gerlach's thigh and another splinter cut his hand. Otherwise he was uninjured. Both of the injured were treated at the naval hospital.

What the name of the naval electrician is could not be ascertained.

ANTI-PICKETING LAW DRAFTED AT MARTINEZ

An anti-picketing ordinance has been drafted by Trustee J. J. McNamara of Martinez and will be up for passage before the board of the county seat next Monday.

The proposed ordinance, if passed, will prohibit the picketing of non-union jobs.

A number of non-union men are being employed on the bill Shell job and the ordinance has ben edrafted, apparently, preparatory to making things easy for the oil company, when a larger number of men will be employed.

OPENING OF '49 CAMP ATTEND BY BIG CROWD

A large crowd left the year 1915 last night and by passing through the door of the Richmond skating rink plunged into the year 1849.

The Spanish War Veterans' unique amusement project, "The '49 Camp," opened to the public last night.

No detail was lacking to add to the realism of the camp. There were gaming tables, decorations and costumes, all reminiscent of the old mining days.

A good orchestra supplied the music for the dancing. Members of the Veterans' lodge in charge of the floor were handsome in the swaggering dress of the year '49. Only "phoney" money was used at the gaming tables.

The camp will be running full swing for the next three nights.

ST. GEORGE SONS HOLD BIG MEETING

The Sons of St. George held their regular weekly meeting last night with the usual good attendance. HIGH SCHOOL GIVEN FIELD FOR ATHLETICS

Nicholl Donates Use of Land to Build Mile Running Track.

All the land necessary for athletic purposes was offered to the High school yesterday by Joseph Nicholl. The land is located just across Twenty-third street from the school building.

The offer was accepted and as a result the work on the track on the school property was stopped.

A mile running track will be laid on the Nicholl property. A jumping pit, pole vaulting and jumping standards and other athletic equipment is planned for the new field.

The running track will be the best in the state when completed.

A strong bid will be made for the Central Alameda County Academic Athletic League meet in 1916. The league will hold its meet this year in Hayward, when the local high school will send a number of athletes to compete.

NOMADS FORCED ACROSS LINE

Constable Davis yesterday morning chased the horde of gypsies out of Contra Costa county and back into Alameda county.

The band invaded Stege from San Mateo county. San Francisco has refused to harbor them.

PULLMAN CO. DISCHARGES OVER 150 WORKERS

Local Residents Are Given Preference Over Others in Retention of Jobs.

One hundred and sixty men, all skilled mechanics, lost their jobs at the Pullman shops yesterday. This number were turned loose when the shops closed down last night. Head officials gave no reason for the reduction of the force. It is current rumor in Pullman that there will be another big cut in a few days. Up to yesterday the local shops have been employing in the neighborhood of 600 men.

Practically all of the men laid off are employes of the company who live in Oakland and Berkeley. Very few residents of Pullman and Richmond have been affected. Orders issued from the head offices asked that the married men residing in Richmond be given the preference over all others, excepting the oldest employes of the company.

The cutting down of the local force follows the visit of Assistant Mechanical Manager Phleger of Chicago, who has been spending the past five days on an inspection of the plant.

Employes of the company state the work is slacker for this time of the year than it ever has been since the company started operations in this city. In the future fewer cars will be brought here for repairs.

At the main shops of the Pullman Company at Pullman, Ill., only 6000 men are now employed, where nearly 23,000 were working at this time a year ago. Statements emanating from the offices of the company are to the effect that there is a possibility that the Pullman shops at Pullman will close down entirely for a short period on April 1.

Phleger's visit to the local plant has had an effect directly opposite from what was expected. When Phleger first made his appearance at the shops last week it was freely predicted that the company's force in this city would be increased by at least 200 men.

Six cars that have been in the Pullman shops for repairs, will be turned out tomorrow. Two cars will be finished on March 11, two on the 13th, two on the 15th, three on the 16th, three on the 17th and two on the 18th.

FOIL ATTEMPT OF THIEVES TO LOOT SALOON

Enter Kelly Bar, Pullman, At 7 O'Clock Yesterday Morning.

Two bold daylight burglars made an attempt to rob the Kelly Bar in Pullman, located at the corner of Market and South street, at 7 o'clock this morning, but were frightened away before they obtained any loot.

Louis Harms, son of the proprietor of the saloon, had opened up the establishment but a few minutes before the attempted robbery. He was in a side room near the rear of the building, out of sight of the bar, when he heard a slight noise in the barroom. Thinking a patron had come in to be served he started for the front of the building.

The burglars, becoming alarmed, fled. Harms saw one of the men behind the bar. He leaped over the counter and, followed by his partner, ran out through the front door. In haste to get out of the place, one of the would-be burglars smashed the glass in the swinging door leading into the saloon.

Harms followed them out the door, and noticed that they separated, each running in a different direction. He was unable to furnish the police department with any description of either of the marauders.

Local officials are now working on the case.

SELLS LEASE OF LA SELLE BUILDING

Place Taken Over By Mrs. H. E. Ballard, Formerly of Richmond and Well Known.

Mrs. Edna Montgomery yesterday afternoon sold her lease on the La Selle building and what furnishings she had placed in it to Mrs. H. E. Ballard of Stockton.

Mrs. Ballard has owned first class rooming houses in San Francisco and Oakland.

She left Richmond 14 years ago, having lived on the west side. She is well known in this city.

She sold the Glenn Hotel in Stockton January 1. She was in Stockton four years. Prior to that she ran high class apartment houses in San Francisco.

"While I know the building has bene given a bad name, I intend to clear it of any suspicion very shortly," she said.

Mrs. Ballard has taken a five-year lease on the building and is confident that Richmond is the coming city and that she will make good.

Mrs. Montgomery left the building yesterday.

The carpenters are expected to finish their job next week. Following these workmen, the painters will be engaged on the building.

During the latter part of this week or early next week between 50 and 100 loads of dirt will be dumped around the building to fill a number of the holes. A lawn will be planted.

IMPROVERS TO TALK POLITICS NEXT MEETING

Annexed District Club May Endorse Councilmanic Candidates Next Thursday.

Politics will be one of the main topics of discussion at the next meeting of the Annexed District Improvement Club, to be held in the Pullman Hotel a week from tonight. The meeting was originally set for tonight, but was postponed on the request of a large number of the members of the club, who want one week more in which to become thoroughly conversant with the situation as regards candidates for the city council.

Some of the members of the club want to endorse their favorites for the council job.

Holliday, well known employe of Jack Holliday, well known employe of the Pullman company, who will be is a member of the club, will be among those present at the session. He is expected to speak briefly regarding his candidacy, and outline the platform on which he is going before the voters to be elected.

Whether the club will go as far as to endorse any of the candidates is not known.

Numerous Applications For Jobs On Election Boards

On Tuesday City Clerk Faris told a representative of the Daily News that the applications of those who wish to serve on election boards at the April primaries would be considered if the parties would communicate with him, giving him their addresses. The Daily News published this fact.

Faris was busy all day yesterday taking the names and addresses of the people who called him up by telephone. He received nearly a score of letters from those who wish to sit on one of the boards. A number called at his office and asked to be placed on the election board.

Whereas two days ago the city clerk did not know who to put on the election boards, he now has no end of names to consider.

It pays to advertise in the Daily News.

TESTIFY IN FONSECA TRIAL IN MARTINEZ

Three witnesses yesterday before Judge Conley at Martinez testified that they had seen Joseph Fonseca shoot John Leander four times after he, himself, had been shot in the leg and was lying on the ground. The witnesses declared that Fonseca fired the four shots while Leandro was running away.

Fonseca is charged with murder. The shooting happened at Concord last August. Fonseca walks on crutches as a result of the shooting.

TO ORGANIZE OPPOSITION TO HARBOR LAND SITE

Practically All Citizens of the City Ready to Prevent Hall Location.

Plans are already being formulated for strong, organized opposition to the Wall City Hall site.

Money is being raised, prominent men have agreed to take part in the campaign, and all indications are that from now on Wall will be up against a stiffer fight than he has ever faced before.

The plans of the proposed organization are to keep the arguments against the Wall site before the voters from now until the city election.

A meeting is to be held in the near future, at which time the membership and leadership of the new body will be made public.

That the people of Richmond are overwhelmingly in opposition to the raw work of Wall and the city council in placing the City Hall miles from the center of population was well evidenced yesterday by the reception accorded the Daily News' account of the idiotic ceremonies attendant to the turning of the first spade of earth.

Not only the working people are against the frame-up. Merchants, real estate men and other business men are strongly opposed to making Richmond a state wide joke by the machinations of Wall.

Members of the new organization declare that they will prevent the city council from occupying the Wall building at all.

Fifty-four local workmen went out to the site yesterday morning to apply for jobs. One carpenter was employed and two laborers.

Four carpenters are working. Excavating for the laying of the foundation is going ahead.

OGBORN DESIGNS PLACERVILLE HOTEL

Within the next few days the work of constructing a four-story hotel in Placerville, El Dorado county, designed by Architect J. B. Ogborn of Richmond, will be started. The hotel is to be conducted when completed by J. Raffetto, Ogborn's brother-in-law.

Ogborn, who returned from Placerville yesterday, where he has been superintending the tearing down of the old Cary House, which occupies the site on which the new structure is to be erected, says that three stories of the structure will be finished this summer and ready for occupancy by early fall. The Cary House, which is being torn down, is one of the landmarks of California, and one of the few remaining structures emblematic of the "Mangtown" of early days.

Across the street from the new hotel is the stump of the famous tree on which many early day desperadoes were hung. The building of the new hotel, which Ogborn has designed, makes necessary the tearing down of a landmark made famous in the writings of Bret Harte and Mark Twain, and known to thousands of '49ers and their descendants, now scattered throughout the state and nation.

The Cary Hotel was established by William Cary in 1857. Soon after the hostelry had opened Cary took J. W. Cullen into partnership. It had over a dozen owners after Cary and his partner relinquished the business.

Many famous people and incidents are interwoven with the history of the Cary House. It was the headquarters for the first over the mountains stage line, established in 1858. Horace Greeley addressed the citizens of Placerville from the upper portico of the hotel in 1867. Con-

A WORD TO WALL.

George S. Wall, real estater, who has sold property in the Harbor Center tract on the representation that his tract is the tract where Richmond's City Hall will positively be located, has made the threat that he will put the Daily News out of business by July 1st, if he has to spend a barrel of money to do it.

The Daily News has heard threats of that kind since it first started in business over a year ago. Other men of Wall's type, who object to a fair representation of conditions as they exist, have made such threats.

In the first place, let it be understood that George S. Wall has not money enough, or cannot command money enough, to put the Daily News out of business.

The Daily News is here to stay. That is more than can be said of Wall's site.

Further, if Wall cannot put the Daily News out of business any faster than he can make his City Hall site the real site, the Daily News will probably be in business for several years to come.

Wall is a bluffer. To give credit where credit is due, it must be said that he is a bluffer on a large scale. He is willing to spend money to carry out a bluff.

But he will have to spend more money than he spent Tuesday morning in trying to fool the people of Richmond into believing the City Hall is to be built on his land, if he is going to put the Daily News out of business.

Wall may be a success as a real estate man, but he will find he is up against a hard game when he tries to put the workingman's organ out of the way, simply because that organ voices honest and sincere opposition to his method of obtaining publicity for his property at the expense of the people's wishes.

Wall says he will put the Daily News out of business by July. Wall had better confine his operations to the real estate business. If he tries any underhanded methods with the Daily News, he will get his fingers burned, as will some of his tools in the city council, who have willingly pulled his chestnuts out of the fire.

CITY HALL AND REAL ESTATE ADVERTISING.

The Richmond City Hall will never be permanently located on the Wall site, if it is, indeed, located there at all.

Wall, we think, doesn't care much whether or not the City Hall does stay there.

Wall advertised his lots as lots on the tract whereon the City Hall was to be placed.

He has to make good that advertising. He has to get the city officials to occupy his building at all costs. Whether they occupy his building for longer than a day or two won't make much difference.

And so he has spent much money to put through his bluff. He has bought newspapers. He tried through agents to buy Daily News stock and so change the policy of this paper. He failed in that.

There really isn't any necessity of worrying about the City Hall being located on Wall's site. It won't be located there.

The Supreme Court may reverse the ruling of the lower court and make an election possible.

If a different decision is reached there is always the possibility of electing councilmen who believe that the people have brains enough to place their buildings where they will.

Wall wants the City Hall on his land.

He isn't worrying about how long it stays there. That advertising must be made good.

WELCOME, WILHELM!

William Voss, formerly connected with the Daily News and Independent, and until recently one of the proprietors of a weekly paper in East Oakland, has succeeded Verne W. Bailey as city editor of the Independent. Bailey left Richmond last week to accept a position with the Examiner in Oakland.

Voss is a newspaper man of experience and a likable fellow. He is cordially welcomed back by the newspaper fraternity of Richmond.

U. S. STYLES RIGHT ON TIME FOR THE EASTER PARADE.

Just to prove that American fashion designers kept the promises made soon after war was declared to make "fashionable fashions" for American women, Mme. Alla Ripley, president of the Art Fashion League of America, gave a fashion fete recently in Chicago.

The gowns displayed included everything from bridal gowns to "trotter" suits, and they set the doubts of the Easter girl at rest. She's sure now she may be fashionably arrayed on Easter day, even if Paris is fenced off by submarine mines.

COLLEGE GIRL WRITES FAIRY PLAYS AND BOOKS ON SERIOUS PROBLEMS

Miss Alice Gerstenberg whose dramatization of "Alice in Wonderland" is one of the stage successes of the season has turned from fairy tales and "little plays" to a serious consideration of social and economic conditions that affect women, and in her new novel, "The Conscience of Sarah Platt," these subjects are made the basis of an interesting romance.

Although she but recently graduated from Bryn Mawr college Miss Gerstenberg has two novels and several plays to her credit. Her home is in Chicago.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Murphy left last night for a three months' trip through Nebraska, Kansas and Indiana.

Edward Grey, Standard Oil employe, departed Sunday on a trip to Seattle.

Edward White, local Standard Oil employe, has accepted a position with the same corporation at the plant at Jacksonville, Fla.

Theodore Giffa, proprietor of the City Cafe of Salt Lake City, Utah, who owns property in this city, spent yesterday in an inspection of his holdings.

John Fisher, well known member of the Potters' Union, will leave for Trenton, N. J., shortly. Rumor says he won't come back alone.

DANNY BURNS TO START BUSINESS

Word received here yesterday by friends of Denny Burns, for several years a conductor in the employ of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, is to the effect that Burns will not return from his two months' vacation to again take up his permanent residence in this city.

Burns left here ostensibly to visit relatives in New Mexico and Arizona. It has developed that he made the trip primarily for business purposes. The two months' vacation allowed him has elapsed.

Although the name of the city he plans to locate in is not known, Burns writes that he is to engage in the draying and stable business.

Denny, as he is familiarly known, is one of the best liked men in Richmond. He first came here when the city was confined to few houses. He entered the employ of the traction company nine years ago, and until two months ago worked continuously.

He is a brother of Charles Burns, member of the Richmond ball team, and also a brother of "Silent Bill" Burns, who is a member of one of the teams in the American Association.

SHARKEY URGES C. C. PEOPLE TO ATTEND

A meeting of the Roads and Highways Joint Committee will be held in the Assembly chamber in Sacramento next Monday evening. Important highway legislation will be taken up.

Assemblyman Will R. Sharkey of Contra Costa county urges all Contra Costa citizens that can to attend.

"I want to see a good representation from Contra Costa county," said Sharkey, "as this meeting promises to draw men of prominence in county affairs from every section of California, and at this time the highway bills promise to prove some of the most important legislation that will be taken care of at this session."

CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS TO START

Late this week or early next week M. B. Roberts, Mrs. Mary McCullough and Mrs. Gibson, the committee recently appointed to solocit funds for the Social Service Bureau, will start making its canvas among the business men of the city. The committee intended to start on the canvass on Tuesday, but the work was abandoned on account of the threatening weather.

When the Social Service Bureau directors hold their regular meeting late this month, the committee expects to be able to report that a regular subscription list, which provides for the donation of money weekly or monthly, or both, has been arranged for.

The work of the organization, which is charitable in its nature, is hampered somewhat at this time by the lack of funds. Much that is to be done can be accomplished when arrangements are made to have stated sums coming in regularly.

PREPARE FOR BIG MEETING

Plans were made at the meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood in Fraternal Hall last night for the meeting of the East Shore Club March 24. The East Shore Club consists of officers of nine different lodges around the bay. Supreme Vice President Morgan A. Duke will be present at the meeting.

A big banquet will be served at the gathering.

The committee of arrangements consists of Mrs. Nettie Fulton, Mrs. Kate Mason, F. R. Bailey and Morris Howland.

EASTERN STARS TO HOLD ANOTHER SOCIAL EVENT

Acantha Chapter of Eastern Star is planning another one of its enjoyable social events for tomorrow night at Bank Hall. The committee in charge is completing arrangements for the rendition of a musical program and a social evening. One of the features of the entertainment will be dancing. Refreshments will be served. The hall will be decorated for the occasion.

LABOR WINS PASSAGE OF "SPOTTERS" BILL

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—Labor unions won their first victory in the Legislature yesterday when the Assembly, by a vote of 60 to 16, passed the "spotters" bill. The measure, introduced and fathered by Assemblyman Ryan of San Francisco, requires that railroads, street car companies or other corporations employing special agents shall give employes charged with misconduct an opportunity to defend themselves by being confronted with the so-called "spotter" making the accusation.

Ryan, in his speech for the bill, said that he wished every member of the Assembly could have before him the San Francisco Bulletin, in which was run a special story under the title, "The Confessions of a Spotter."

"Gentlemen of the Assembly," said Ryan, "in that story was exposed the whole spotter system as operated by the railroad and street railway companies. This particular spotter confessed that he had caused innocent men—conductors and other employes of the roads—to be discharged without any evidence against them on charges which they could not prove their innocence, because they were denied the right of confronting their accuser and also the right of producing evidence in their own behalf."

The bill was made the subject of a spirited fight in the labor and capital committee during the January session, when counsel for the railroads and street car companies opposed a favorable recommendation for the measure. The only concession granted the corporations was a reduction of the penalty for violation, which was made a misdemeanor with a maximum fine of $300 and a county jail sentence. The bill now goes to the Senate, where a further fight is expected.

Two other bills, important from a labor standpoint, were on yesterday's file for final action, but by consent of their authors were postponed for action later this week. They were the McDonald cement container bill and the Meek bill for the employment of convicts in the construction of highway laterals. Both will be hotly contested when they come up again later this week. The labor adherents of the House are as eager to pass the cement container bill as they are to defeat the convict labor measure.

WILL BOYCOTT GLASS WORKS

The San Francisco Labor Council is about to inaugurate a systematic boycott against the Illinois Pacific Glass Company and the Pacific Coast Glass Works, two S. F. firms that have locked out 33 employes who refused to accept a reduction of 20 per cent in wages.

The locked-out employes are mostly girls who, it is said, by hard work could make on an average of $1.90 per day. They were employed as bottle caners and their employment was spasmodic, they frequently being idle weeks at a time.

The locked-out employes are receiving strike benefits from the American Federation of Labor. It is reported that the bottle-caning department of these two concerns have been closed down.

BARTENDERS TAKE CARDS FROM FOUR LOCAL SALOONS

At the meeting of the Central Labor Council last night Business Agent Fred W. Heckman, who spent yesterday inspecting the Shell job at Martinez, reported that conditions on the work are very bad.

Delegates from the Bartenders' Union reported that the union bar cards have been withdrawn from four local liquor houses because of unfair conditions. The boycott against these places will be rigidly enforced.

James Kennedy, delegate to the Ford and Suhr hearing before the governor, made a report on that meeting. He said that he believed the governor would pardon the two men.

The committee on the organizing of the Women's Union Label League were instructed to arrange the date for the first meeting of the new organization, when officers and permanent organization will be effected.

THE SPORT LOG BOOK

ELKS WILL HAVE TO HIKE SOME TO TRIM OAKLAND AGGREGATION

If the Richmond Elks are to come out on the long end of the score in the game with the Oakland Coast Leaguers Sunday they will have to get in and travel some. Be it known that the club that Ty Christian will send here is about the fastest bunch that the Elks have ever been called upon to tangle with.

Christian is to start the fastest boys he has in his training camp. Practically every man who will appear here is sure of a job on the "My City" lineup.

Following is the lineup and batting order of the visitors:

Local fans are hoping that the Oakland boss starts "Adonis" John Bromley, the sensational young left-handed spitball artist. Bromley is a Berkeley boy and a former Trolley League star. He has pitched in Richmond in times past, and has many friends here who would like to see him start against the Elks.

Gavenich is the youngster who did such good work with the St. Mary's College team two years ago.

Pruitt is recognized as one of the best pitchers in the Coast League.

INTRODUCING OUR FRIEND CLIFF CLEEK

This is introducing Cliff Cleek.

For those who don't know Cleek and may wonder why he is entitled to an introduction we will say that he is about the speediest, steadiest and coolest catcher in these parts.

Cleek came to Richmond from Merced year before last with a reputation as a promising receiver. Last year Manager Luce decided to give Cleek a chance to show his wares. Luce has never regretted his action in getting Cleek's John Heuricus on an Elk contract.

Cleek made good from the start. When he catches Burns and Gordon he is working with two mighty good hurlsmiths, yet Cliff makes the easiest kind of play out of this job. There are better hitters than Cliff, yet he is a good average hitter, and he is liable to crack the ball a mile in the pinch.

Base stealers take an awful chance trying to get to second with Cleek behind the home plate. His arm is as good as his word. And that is saying a lot.

Cliff is as steady as a Nuremberg clock. While other catchers may pull off more sensational stuff than the local boy, none of the bushers that have ever made an appearance here have played a steadier game than this bird.

He is not subject to erratic streaks as many catchers are.

He has a diamond future that is a hum dinger if he stays with the game.

Cleek is a regular catcher.

Now we've said it.

* * *

Blankenship, who formerly played with the Elks, was in uniform Sunday. "Blank" is working out with the boys, and is in first class shape. He can ably substitute for any of the local infielders any time anything goes wrong with them.

* * *

"Swat" Ingram broke the first bat of the season Sunday, when he hit one well on the handle.

* * *

Already there is considerable speculation going the rounds as to whether the Elks will be able to turn the tables on the Petaluma Club.

ELKS PREPARE TO BATTLE WITH THE COMMUTERS

If the Elks lose to the Oakland Coast Leaguers Sunday, poor condition will not be brought forth as an alibi. For the home guards will get three nights of good, hard practice this week.

"Brick" Devereaux had all his gang out at the First street grounds last night. The boys were put through some strenuous infield practice. They also hit out a few and got their lamps trimmed on the ball.

Practice will be held again this afternoon and Thursday afternoon.

ELKS PLAN FOR DANCE AT EAST SHORE PARK

HANS WAGNER STILL YOUNG ENOUGH TO MAKE RECRUITS HUSTLE

HANS WAGNER.

Hans Wagner celebrated his 41st birthday the other day and the famous Pittsburg shortstop says he is still spry enough to make the youngsters get out and hustle for his job.

SPORTING GOULASH

After reading the two columns of stuff about him in a local evening sheet, Manager Bill Luce has decided that he is quite a famous diamond impresario.

* * *

* * *

Luce doesn't know where the Martines scribes get this stuff about Woods umpiring the battle here Sunday. Unless he changes his mind between now and Sunday, the local manager will send Hayes in for another tryout. An umpire can no more be judged by his first game than a ball player can. "Napoleon" Luce would rather give a home man a chance to arbitrate diamond battles than be compelled to import an umpire, as he has done many times in the past.

* * *

Although it is not generally known, Hayes, whom some of the fans have had a delightful time in roasting all week, has served his time as a professional umps. Until two seasons ago Hayes drew a salary on this end of the game from one of the small Eastern leagues. That explains how he happened to appear on the diamond all togged out with an umpire's uni and cap. That cap and uni have seen some service, and on faster diamonds than Richmond has. The fans should reserve their hasty judgment of a man's capabilities until he has had at least two tryouts. Hayes has had only one.

* * *

Back in the palmy days when John Quincy Adams was President of the United States, "Brick" Devereaux and Umpire Hayes were fast friends. Some fifteen years ago they played side by side on the infield of a fast Middle West town team.
